

THE PEOPLE'S MAPS COMMISSION

The People's Maps Commission is holding an online public hearing that includes the following subject matter experts, as well as an opportunity for public comment.

Thursday, Oct. 1, 2020

5:30 – 8:30p.m.

ERIC HOLDER

Chair,
National Democratic Redistricting Committee

Holder is an internationally-recognized leader on a broad range of legal issues. He served in the Obama Administration as the 82nd Attorney General of the United States from February 2009 to April 2015, the third-longest serving Attorney General in U.S. history and the first African American to hold that office.

KAREN NELSON

Diversity and Inclusion Coordinator,
Office of the Appleton Mayor

Beginning her career as a chemist, Nelson is now a regional expert on diversity and inclusion. In 2018, she launched the Dignity & Respect Campaign, an opportunity for community members to “reinforce their commitment to creating environments for all to work, live, learn and play — with all of our differences.”

RUTH GREENWOOD

Co-Director,
Voting Rights and Redistricting
Campaign Legal Center

A lecturer at Harvard Law School, Greenwood has litigated two partisan gerrymandering cases from the trial level to the Supreme Court of the United States (Whitford v. Gill and LWVNC v. Rucho). She has also advised dozens of states on how to draft and implement independent redistricting commissions.

Working together to create fair, impartial maps.

For more information about the Commission, streaming of hearings, or how to provide comment to the commission members, visit:
bit.ly/PeoplesMaps